

At the beginning of January we opened a new chapter, for ourselves and for Bucharest: INSIGHT. An eye on Bucharest's galleries Documentary. We set to visit, explore and document the local art scene, through its art galleries.

There is so much more to contemporary art than we might initially think. We are striving to offer an overview of the local art scene and of the evolution of Bucharest's cultural dimension in 2015.

So far, we documented and enjoyed 5 opening days and visited 10 galleries, each with their own story and prospects, promoting rising artists and enabling the reinvention of distinguished ones.

In anticipation of the documentary that will be released in May 2015, we present to you INSIGHT. An Eye on Bucharest Art Galleries - The Trailer. It features shots from the first 10 galleries we included in the project: Aiurart, Zorzini, Galateca, Victoria Art, Elite Art, Art Yourself, Anca Poterașu, DanaArt, Eastward Prospectus and Nicodim.
